PERSONAL DATA PRIVACY NOTICE

1. Your personal data - what is it?

Personal data relates to a living individual who can be identified from that data. Identification can be by the information alone or in conjunction with any other information in the data controller's possession or likely to come into such possession. The processing of personal data is governed by the General Data Protection Regulation (the "GDPR").

2. Who are we?

The Kingskerswell Summer Moon Trust is the data controller (contact details below). This means it decides how your personal data is processed and for what purposes.

3. How do we process your personal data?

The Kingskerswell Summer Moon Trust complies with its obligations under the "GDPR" by keeping personal data up to date; by storing and destroying it securely; by not collecting or retaining excessive amounts of data; by protecting personal data from loss, misuse, unauthorised access and disclosure and by ensuring that appropriate technical measures are in place to protect personal data.

We use your personal data for the following purposes: -

- To enable us to provide a voluntary service for the benefit of the public in a particular geographical area as specified in our constitution;
- To administer membership records;
- To fundraise and promote the interests of the charity;
- To manage our employees and volunteers;
- To maintain our own accounts and records (including the processing of gift aid applications);
- To inform you of news, events, activities and other benefits involving Kingskerswell Summer Moon Trust;
- To share your contact details with Kingskerswell Summer Moon Trust partners so they can keep you informed about news, events, activities and other benefits involving Kingskerswell Summer Moon Trust and in which you may be interested (by consent only).

4. What is the legal basis for processing your personal data?

- Explicit consent of the data subject so that we can keep you informed about news, events, activities and services and keep you informed about diocesan events.
- Processing is necessary for carrying out legal obligations in relation to Gift Aid or under employment, social security or social protection law, or a collective agreement;
- Processing is carried out by a charity provided: -
  - the processing relates only to members or former members (or those who have regular contact with it in connection with those purposes); and
  - there is no disclosure to a third party without consent.

5. Sharing your personal data

Your personal data will be treated as strictly confidential and will only be shared with other members of Kingskerswell Summer Moon Trust in order to carry out its purpose. We will only share your data with third parties with your consent.

6. How long do we keep your personal data?

We keep data in accordance with the guidance set out in our policy.

Specifically, we retain Kingskerswell Summer Moon Trust applications, partner details (including sponsors), helper and associates data while still relevant and current; gift aid declarations and associated paperwork for up to 6 years after the calendar year to which they relate; and grant approval details permanently.

7. Your rights and your personal data
